WORD FROM THE MANAGEMENT

Dear reader,

I am delighted to bring you the first edition of our Newsbreeze Magazine for 2022. It seems that my greetings always come in the midst of extraordinary times these days – something that seems to be the norm rather than the exemption now, unfortunately. Europe is witnessing a dark period in its history. The invasion of Ukraine is creating a new world order, resulting in extreme political tensions that are fuelling uncertainty in addition to the terrible tragedy of war. Once again, the lines between the east and west are becoming more defined. At Harren Group, we took swift action to help and assist our many Ukrainian colleagues – and I was truly touched by the levels of solidarity and desire to help that came from all around in our global organization. Moments like these make me proud of our team.

Despite the sadness around us, we also see bright spots in the darkness. Our business is thriving, and we continue to see strong activity – especially in the Renewables sector, where SAL and Jumbo-SAL-Alliance have a strong hold. We have also recently marked our first year of working together as Jumbo-SAL-Alliance. This has been a great and successful journey so far. Neither Jumbo nor SAL imagined us coming together as quickly and effectively as we have. I hope our clients feel the benefits of our alliance, too.

Parallel to this edition of Newsbreeze, we are issuing our inaugural Sustainability Report. This marks the first visual step to our long-term commitment to sustainability and a showcase to some of all the Environmental Social Governance activites we already undertake today.

This issue comes out as we are about to gather at our industry's biggest event: the Breakbulk Europe Show. I hope many of our readers will stop by to visit us at our booth. I am certainly looking forward to meeting with like-minded professionals, business partners and friends in person once again. For now, I hope you find time to enjoy our Newsbreeze Magazine and the many fascinating stories we have to share.

Happy reading!

Dr Martin Harren, Group CEO
